BOXING.

To-night's fistic carnival at the Metropolitans' Pulton club house, will likely draw the largest crowd ever within its walls. Such a bill of fare has never before been offered in this vicinity, and around the main event the interest is not by any means confined to Wheeling. Both Nick Burley and Jack Bonner are top-notchers in the middle-weight class, and either's victory will place him rubthe way, has fought draws with each of them. Their battle this evening will be them. Their state this evening with for twenty rounds or more, and though Bonner is regarded by many as the winner. Burley's admirers wear a confident smile. Burley arrived here from Zanes-ville yesterday afternoon, looking prime. He was accompanied by Jake Hollman, of St. Louis, and about a dozen from Zanesville. A big delegation will come from the latter fown to dozen.

Last night at P. J. Gavin's place, Dr. John H. Pipes made a physical examination of Bonner and Burley, and at its conclusion reported both men in perfect health and sound as they made 'em. Tests were made of their cheat expanden. Burley expanded his chest 6½ inches, and Bonner 5½ inches. The two men are splendid physical specimens. Burley stands 5 feet 11 inches in his stocking feet, and Bonner reaches 5 feet 6½ inches. Both are trained down to 160 pounds. The big Californian in street clothes resembles a college football player, while Bonner looks the fistic light from crown to soles. He still wears his left optic in mourning, the result of his meeting with Tom McCarthy, at Rochester, N. Y., last week, By many followers of the ring Bonner is touted as a coming champion. However, both men's records are brilliant, and a fail to-night means much. Last pight at P. J. Gavin's place, Dr.

The Metropolitans held a meeting yes-terday afternoon, and decided to have P. J. Gavin referee to-night's contest, Past experience has shown the advisability of having a local man, and Mr. Gavin's esection will find favor. The club requests the audience to assist it in preserving order, and asks spectators to refruit from audible comments upon the refrain from audible comments upon the boxers. The first preliminary starts promptly upon the arrival of the 8 o'clock motor, and no time will be wasted in gatting the stellar attraction on the boards. There will be no rush, neither will there be any delay, but all bouts will be pulled off as promptly as possible. Cars will be in waiting after the courset for Benwood and Moundsville people.

This evening's eard begins with a four-round bout between Joe Bruner, the Cincinnati bantam, and "Buzzy" Auber, the Pitth ward lad. Next on the programme comes Eddic Gardner, of New York, and the Pittsburgh "unknown," for six rounds. They go on at 122 pounds. Last, but not least of the preliminaries, is the five round bout, the party of the part being the great and only Beau Hrummel of the ring, Charlle Burne, of Cincinnati, and the party of the second part Herman Beck, of Pittsburgh. Those who takes this argument should bow their heads in sorrow for evermore. That the boy from "Cincy" will be there or thereabouts is a 100 to 1 shot, for besides rivaling his friend, the Prince of Water little. will be there or thereabouts is a 100 to 1 shot, for besides rivaling his friend, the Pwince of Wales in the latest fushions. Burns is a man of many talents, not the least of these being his prowess with the mitts.

It will probably be after 10 o'clock when Burley and Bonner take their cor-ners. The former will be seconded by Jake Holinan and Kid Wanco, and Bon-ner will be looked after by Leslie Pearce Frank McCormick and Charille Burns. They are sure to box to an im-mense crowd, the rush for seats being freat since they were put on sale. Be-Frat cince they were put on sale. Re-sides the Zinesville delegation, 150 sparse are coming from Pittsburgh and McKeesport, and Moundaville brethren have purchased half of one section. And a great evening's sport is promised the Charlie Burns, the Cincinnati boxer, has also shone upon the diamond. He was backstop for the Popiar Stars, an amateur nine that cleaned up everything around Cincinnati about seven years ago. It was while catching that he became minus half of one of his fingers, the result of a foul tip, and trying to use a left hand glove on the other in. Jakey Deisel, Wheeling's short stop, part of last year, was a member of the same team. Burns says he will try to get on the Inter-state staff of unpires this season. If he succeeds in his effort, some of the kickers will be forced to bite the dust. With his stock of Quints sayings Burns would make an ideal rooter, and kep any cruck in good humor.

The above may be all right from the point of view of Mr. Jack Shearon, once on earth and now a has-been, but the trouble is, his view-point is out of alignment. Followers of the Inter-state race of 1894 will unite in the declaration that Phil Knell was probably the best twiler in the league season before last, and there were pitchers in the league that season who have more than held their own in the big league since, including Knell's side-partner on the Fort Wayne team, Powell, now the King Spider of the Tebeau tribe. Wheeling was stacked up against Knell several times in '96, and every time he pitched the Nallers to defeat. His speed was terrific and his curves as puzzling and erratic as the Chinese alphabet. Snoke up, Shearen, and do something to show you are not in the class you place Knell in.
